If Winter Comes Carol Raye

Motionless, Lindsay stared, eyes wide, absorbing the thousands of pinpricks that assaulted the back of her head and sank slowly down her spine until they reached her stomach. She did not want to see him again. Not here, not now, not when her life was so empty and he had everything she lacked. But there he was...

Drew watched as the beloved stranger took his son's hand and moved off down the trail. He didn't want to pursue her again. He had done that for seven years. Now, ten years later, she appears in his life again, more beautiful, but sadly alone.
