This book is a delightful reality that exposes the myth of marriage, deals with the reality of divorce within the religious and secular realm and challenges the divorced not to become the victim. It encourages persons to rise above the pain of failed relationships and marriages, and not to hold the hurt that has been inflicted upon them as a result of bad relationship choices. This book is an encouragement to life after divorce. It is a teacher of acknowledging the error of your ways and moving on with your life after divorce.
