Nightlife Casey Timmerman

When Ella met Alex, she knew they were meant to be. Sparks flew from the time they first met. He was perfect, in every sense of the word. He was all she could think about. They both knew that they were a great match. They made sure to find each other nearly every night. They whispered sweet things and shied around their attraction. There was only one problem. They'd never met in real life.
