The invincible Soup Vinson and his hapless best friend, Rob, are helping to plan their town's annual Fourth of July celebration. But the fireworks begin early when the duo start their research and discover that some uppity citizens have purposely ignored the significant contributions of Native Americans to the town's history. Soup and Rob decide to right the wrong--as only they can. With all the action and high jinks that have made Soup books perennial favorites, Soup 1776 is revolutionary fun!
