A Great Day To Live Damali Keith

Taking what could be your last breath isn't the time to realize this would be a great day to live. Daffodil Keigh struggles to break free from the maniac's hands around her neck. Prayers once tumbled from Daffodil's lips. Now the squeezing on her throat makes it impossible to speak. Bible verses continue scrolling through her mind like the words on a teleprompter. Daf, a TV news journalist, has covered many stories like this. Instantly Daf wonders will she too become the tragic story of the day? The spiraling verses suddenly stop on 91:1. Daf calls it her 911, her emergency call to God and in a snap something happens but is it enough to save her? A Great Day To Live is one woman's eventful journey through life encountering triumphs, tragedies and miracles. Through heartbreak and humor you'll be taken on an unexpected voyage inspiring you to appreciate, enjoy and live every day as an adventure. So is it her life or her legacy that lives on in the end?
