This book contains procedure-based practice guides for filing pleadings, motions, and discovery papers in Los Angeles County courts. The guides consist of excerpts from the state and local rules of civil procedure and state statutes, reorganized into an outline format to serve as a quick reference guide for a practitioner. The relevant court rules are augmented with analysis from secondary sources. Because this product is organized by type of filing (pleadings, motions, and requests), practitioners can easily and efficiently find the relevant court rules and secondary source materials they need for a particular filing.
