Someone to Watch Over Her (Delta Justice, Book 8) Kelsey Roberts

Charly Delacroix wants to believe that Marshall Avery has been hired by her father as just her personal trainer, but she knows different. She suspects the handsome, protective man is by her side because of the injury that has taken her off active police duty--and because of the whispered threats she keeps receiving by phone. But though she resents Marshall's intrusion into her life, she begins to warm up to his charm--and his steely blue eyes.
