Excerpt: If you downloaded this ebook, it is likely that you have heard about anti-social personality disorder. You want to learn more about this disorder. You want to know who it affects. It is also likely that you, like most of the population, have a misunderstanding of what anti-social personality disorders is.

Most people think of 'loners' as anti-social. We think of people who are introverts as anti-social. The term 'anti-social' in these cases don't generally refer to the same thing as the term Anti-Social Personality Disorder does. Traits of anti-social personality disorder generally follow a pattern of disregard for others. We will cover the actual traits of the disorder in this book in order to clarify the differences that make anti-social disorder stand on its own, apart from the other disorders. Anti-social disorder is often rampant in the prison and jail systems due to its pervasiveness and seriousness in society.
