Flowers In The Crag Ralph C Walls

Flowers in the Crag is the true story about the life journey of four individuals. It will take you through five decades of laughter and tears. The story will take you from the dreams of an Amish boy who wanted to see more of the world and learn to fly. He surrounded himself with loving and caring friends and his family became his most important possession in his life. You will also meet another individual in this story who is the complete opposite. His only desire in life is to get everything in life that he can for himself, regardless of who he hurts in the process, including his family. Your journey through this book will fill you with emotion as you experience the tragedies of the crash of TWA flight 800 and the excruciating ordeal of battling cancer. (With updated material added from original book)
