The Molested Temika Smith

Claudia, the mother of three girls with no good male figure made some bad choices in life. The choices she made involved drugs, jail and deception. Her three girls with very different personalities suffered from molestation by family members. Claudia daughters followed in her foot steps making one bad decision after the next. Their decisions were made out of anger. The results of their decisions ended with drugs, death, physical abuse and more. They had each other but was that enough to keep this family together?
