How to Be Rich: What to Do With It When You've Got It! (Ruskin Comics) John Ruskin, Kevin Jackson

The first in a trilogy of comics based around the social ideas of major 19th century philosopher John Ruskin, this one based upon his 1860 essay on economy "Unto this Last"

Darren Bloke had always dreamed of being rich, and one day his dream came true. What he hadn't imagined was that for every problem his windfall solved, another set of problems would spring up. Before long, he'd lost his wife, his children, and his friends—everything but his dog Skittle. But help suddenly arrived, in the strange form of a man who had been dead for 100 years. The spirit of the writer John Ruskin burst into Darren's life, whisked him off on a trip through time and space, and showed him the real nature of wealth and poverty—in other words—how to be rich.
