This is the story of my personal journey with the Holy Spirit of the Father and the Son. This occurred daily over several months. Prior to my direct contact with Him through His Spirit, I did not fully understand the wonderful concept of one God being comprised of three coordinated parts. While previously having a deep love for God, I did not have the full appreciation of how and why He came to live, teach and die on the cross for us, through His son Jesus Christ. I had minimal understanding of a Father and Son, but did not fully understand that the Father is the Son; and the Son is the Father, and they have a combined connection with true believers through the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit visited me because I had an open heart for Him. He talked with me in short sentences on each day through those many months. From these brief periods of communication, He expected me to write the book I have written. His early words to me were "You will know it when you write it". Without the notes I made and the completion of this book, I would never have fully understood the depth and meaning of His visits. Not only do I now totally understand, and greatly appreciate, the triad of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit being one, but I know each serves a role in our journey to everlasting life. As a Catholic for many years, I did not realize the born again concept in the path to Heaven. Having had the experience of being born again, I know I am on a direct walk with Jesus. This is a walk that everyone can take. I fully comprehend that a love for the Father and the Son, will lead all of us to where the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit will all join as one for each of us in a glorious, everlasting life. It is my wish that your life be full and gloriously aimed toward your own personal communication with the Holy Spirit, as this touch of God exists within each of us. We simply must open our hearts and our brains to listen and He will be there to guide us.
