A funny look at life. Experiences that will leave you laughing and wishing you were part of this wonderful woman's life. She lives with her parents and is 43. The economy makes it rough to be a single mom trying to buy a house on her own. Her attitude and funny stories are both heartwarming, and she makes you want to help her. She doesn't need our help though. She will make it on her own and in her own way. There is a story about reading messages on her boyfriends cell phone (or not) and how maybe her sister has is a freak in the bedroom. Its her story. Buy this book.

I loved this book! I laughed out loud and read parts to my husband out loud. I think he wants to divorce me and marry Valerie. -member of book club with Valerie.

I asked my sister to write a review. and here is what she told me to write. "If you put my real name in here I will kill you!"

My mother "Don't put your son's real name in the book, there are perverts out there that might try to kidnap him."

Please help me! Buy this book so I can move!
