Any ambition we have soon becomes a joke as we face the overwhelming drudgery offered to us in the modern American job market. But, there is a slim chance for something better.

If you are willing to take the risks, you just might be able to take control of your worklife. This book will introduce you and your coworkers to ways workers have made positive changes in their lives. It will inspire you to think beyond the American nightmare of wage slavery, and it will give concrete examples of how you can work for a better workplace. The ideas expressed herein are radical, but in such a radically terrible situation, we must get the goods by any means necessary.
