Ghosts Fred A Ludwig

Keela will tell you she's crazy. She tells everyone that, but perhaps the fiery wreck that killed her entire family in one savage blow left her affected. The scars show on the outside, the memories linger on the inside. As a loner, she tries to avoid the bullies who are always eager to pounce on anyone they perceive as different. Having to start over in new school is difficult, almost as hard as having to live with her Aunt and Uncle. She wants to escape all of that, go on adventures like she has listened to over the months since her accident. She's lonely, however she does have her ghosts, they talk to her all the time and listen to her dreams ... and are always willing to help her out. She has her dog and she's met someone new, but they don't know her, not really. Her aunt had suggested she join the band but she's found a better interest, something far better comes to mind when someone decides she's the one.
