Secret Language of the Renaissance: Decoding the Secret Symbols of the Italian Art (Hardcover) (Chinese Edition) Richard Stamp

Artists during the Renaissance always tended to put the ideas they wanted to express in their works. Sometimes, the meaning of a work is derived from traditional culture, but more often its from what people cant understand -- whether the hidden political factors or the artists own heretical belief. In this book, we can enjoy more than one hundred pieces of works of art. The author Richard Stemp introduces the splendor of each work, and then deconstructs, decodes, and expounds the meaning behind it. If you are also a lover of the works of art during the Italian Renaissance, then this book will definitely make you feel happy and satisfied.
