Carla Yates wakes up in the hospital confused and disoriented. She is in an extreme amount of pain after her ordeal with being shot after interrupting a robbery in progress. She is feeling rather hopeless about everything at that moment and is almost on the verge of a breakdown lying in a hospital bed recovering from a concussion and a devastating gunshot wound that had almost taken her life.

But just when she is about to give up on everything Mike Wills, the sexy billionaire werewolf who Carla is now convinced is the love of her life arrives to comfort her. She is immediately relieved and remembers what she is fighting for and what lies in store for her as she prepares to start a beautiful future with this man.

But the future is not turning out quite the way Carla planned. To save her life following the gunshot wound, Mike had to make a split decision. He bit Carla transmitting the curse of the wolf to her.

Now Carla is joining Mike on his quest to stop the curse in its tracks once and for all. Cliff Barnes, the original werewolf must be killed. And it's up to Mike and Carla to take him out before someone else dies...possibly them.

Will their love be strong enough to take down this evil and save each other?

One thing is for sure... love brings out the beast in everyone.
