Wingshooter's Guide to Washington (Wingshooter's Guide Series) Dan Brandvold

This guidebook for bird hunters details Washington's tremendous hunting for chukars, Huns, waterfowl, pheasants, valley quail, turkey and mountain grouse. Thorough descriptions of each bird species are provided, along with accurate distribution maps for each. There are county-by-county breakdowns of hunting opportunities, along with full travel information, including accommodations, restaurants, local veterinarians, car repair, etc. Public hunting opportunities are covered in detail as well, with maps to major hunting areas. This is the complete source of information for both in state and traveling bird hunters interested in Washington's excellent hunting.
