North Carolinian Claire Kelly vacations most summers at Aylen Lake in Ontario, Canada, near the tiny town of Barry's Bay. On a not-so-chance visit to town, Claire meets Mitchell "Mac" Macdonald, a blissfully single wood sculptor and fishing guide who would rather look for wood to carve or a new lake to fish than look anywhere for love.

When Claire blazes into Mac's life, Mac's world--and eventually Claire's--will never be the same.

Told with humor, warmth, and soul, and infused with heavy doses of old school church music, BESIDE THE STILL WATERS will keep you believing that God's love is always possible, even between two people who aren't looking for it.
