Jokes from the Pubs of Ireland James N Healy

A hilarious collection of jokes from the pubs of Ireland. Notice hung in Harry's the other night: 'Honest workman with corkscrew would like to hear of a widow with a pub!' We have a wild character who comes into Harry's. He is a young fellow named Billo with more money than he has earned, and a red face, which isn't from sunshine. The other day he was caught gunning his Mercedes (mark the word) the wrong way down the South Mall by a garda, who asked him where he was going. 'I'm not too sure,' sez Billo through a kind of mist, 'but wherever it is I must be late, 'cos everybody seems to be coming back already.' Dinny was standing in the street the other day when an English chap came up to him and said: 'I say old chap, could you show me the way to the nearest boozer?' Says Dinny, hopefully: 'You're looking at him.'
