IT'S ALWAYS MORE THAN LOVE: New Love 4 (NEW LOVE SERIES) Angelia Vernon Menchan Mena had fallen hard for Fisher. She loved how he took over and handled things and she was pleasantly surprised how he was with Briona.

One night he had come over, Briona had woken up. Strolling in behind her, he had asked if he could hold her. Surprised, she handed the baby to him and her heart warmed at how he sang to her. She realized there was so much she didn't know about him. She had yet to meet his parents. They were off on a half year trip and wouldn't be back for a couple of months. Within moments of him cuddling and singing to her, she was sleeping. Placing her gently in the crib, he turned to her and smiled at the incredulous look on her face.

“What Mena, a childless brother can't know how to treat a baby?” He teased her.

“I guess so. You are full of contradictions.” His eyes pierced her.

“Not contradictions but there are layers to me that I will slowly peel and expose to you. Is Lance still stalking you?”

Lance was keeping his distance but he often showed up where, she was unexpectedly. The last time, he had shown up at her Zumba class, of all places with a young woman on his arm, a young African-American woman of course. “I'm adopted.” Mena glanced at him; that revelation had come from nowhere.

“So Sasha isn't your cousin?”

“She is. I was actually adopted by my mom's sister and her husband.”

“Where is your mom?” His face closed, indicating the conversation was over.
