Slush Pile 3

What we've got here is communal zeen number three from the only literary group ballsy enough -- compassionate enough -- to spare your pathetic asses from the "literary fiction" you're so gagging on. You really do need to take that corporate beer-bong out of your mouths. And the rest of your standing round, stop chanting chug. There's nothing fun about this poofy big-hair phase of American letters. It's corporate lit from here on out unless the ULA does something about it. And we have. And are. So here you go!

The ULA is America's most exciting literary group. We're causing a ruckus in the world of Letters and are publishing voices that have been kept out for too long, popular and populist voices who have fans nationwide, who are part of a movement that's been growing for over 10 years now, one which will not be stopped. You need not fret. Corporate, legal and marketing have never given you anything really worthwhile. This is better than that.
