Rem Koolhaas: Conversations with Students (Architecture at Rice) Rem Koolhaas

This book presents a recent lecture and seminar given by architect Rem Koolhaas at the Rice University School of Architecture. In this compact volume, Koolhaas addresses the urban and architectural implications of extra-large construction, using as examples three of OMA's important large-scale projects: the Zeebrugge Ferry Terminal in Belgium, the Tres Grande Bibliotheque in Paris, and the Karlsruhe Center for Art and Media Technology in Germany.

Tackling questions about the difficult state of urbanism and modernism in contemporary Europe, America, and Asia, this slim volume forms a concise and coherent explanation of the theories and polemics of Koolhaas and OMA. This beautifully designed book serves as an inexpensive alternative and companion to Koolhaas's recent S,M,L,XL.

So , not at all of book usually are make you bored, any it can make you feel happy, fun and chill out. Try to choose the best book for you and try to like reading that.

Kevin Blais:

As a university student exactly feel bored for you to reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's spirit or real their passion. They just do what the educator want, like asked to the library. They go to generally there but nothing reading really. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring and also can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this Rem Koolhaas: Conversations with Students (Architecture at Rice) can make you sense more interested to read.
