The final installment of our rock and roll love affair finds Mary Keller planning to return home after a long summer in the Caribbean. With her new love and step-brother Aaron by her side, she feels ready to meet the new, exciting challenges her upcoming career has brought. His handsome build and long black hair, coupled with entrancing blue eyes drew her in but his gentle heart is the final piece to hold together their love. An old flame has also been put to rest, to never again threaten their way of life together in love. But the long haired beauty Mary now has a secret of her own, one that could put an end to their tale of love. Will she allow this secret to tear apart the love she has fought so hard to win? Or will she trust in her bad boy to become the man he needs to be?
