A Girl Who Would Be King Benjamin Joel Wilkinson

A Girl Who Would Be King is an original story that draws upon ancient Persian legends to tell the tale of a young girl named Jirla, who longs to be king. She sets out on an unusual journey to seek the approval of the most unusual crowner of kings. But Jirla may find that becoming king is more difficult than she expected...

Illustrated in the style of medieval Indian and Persian miniatures, A Girl Who Would Be King is sure to delight would-be kings of any gender or age.
