Salem Sheri B

In an attempt to help out her younger brother and sister who don't want to face their first year of college alone, Sierra transfers to Salem University for her last year. She anticipated a fun filled year of excitement, but quickly finds herself in an extremely creepy little town built on land that was part of the Salem witch trials. Despite their creepy surroundings the siblings were off to a great start, but things start to change quickly the more they learn about the school's mysterious past.
