Islam: Creencias y Practicas Basicas (Spanish Edition) Shayj AbdalHaqq Bewley

Cada criatura está limitada y definida por lo que es, está obligada a ser lo que es. Y, el equilibrio universal se mantiene gracias a cada criatura y cada forma de ser particular. Todo se somete al orden universal y juega su propio papel para preservarlo; el hombre es el único caso que parece ser la excepción de la regla. Pero es, precisamente, en esta contradicción aparente, donde se encuentra la indicación de nuestro papel en la existencia. Es un hecho evidente que no hay nada "fortuito" en la existencia, cada forma, cada partícula, por pequeña que sea, afecta a la totalidad del entorno. Decir pues que, en el caso del ser humano, se alteró esta ley universal, es absolutamente inconcebible. Es, más bien, justo lo contrario: esta capacidad de ir en contra del orden natural de las cosas, es lo que contiene la clave del propósito de la existencia humana. Nuestro papel en la existencia es poder elegir entre reconocer, someterse y desempeñar nuestro papel en el sostenimiento del orden y el equilibrio natural del universo o ir en su contra y alterarlo. Con este libro se nos despeja el camino para avanzar, aclarar y ordenar nuestro equilibrio en el universo. La traducción está hecha del original inglés por Ha Muhammad Faridud-din Bermejo.
