All children are special, but some children have special needs. Where do the parents of a "special-needs child" go for comfort? What other individuals do they know who share their daily struggles, while watching their child try to "fit" into a normal world? A Special Kind of Love: For Those Who Love Children with Special Needs is written for these moms, dads, grandparents, foster parents, and extended families who live with these children on a day-by-day basis. This book is also designed for teachers, doctors, social workers, friends of the family, and pastors who work with these children.
